WHEELING, W. VA., AUGUST 28, 1882. The Republican Congressional Convention of the First District of West Virginia will be held in the City of Clarkburg on the 20th day of August, 1835 for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Confore the Convention.

We recommend to the Republicans of the severa

Such meetings had no business on Virginia soil, and those who held such views were our recomment to the acquisiteans of the several countries composing the Patrict that Country Con-ventions be held on Saturday, August 26th, 182, and that deligates be chosen to said 'District Con-rention on the basis of one delegate for each one hundred votes cast for the Garfield and Arthur slectors in 1880. advised to go to Ohio and Pennsylvania and hold their meetings. This is the con-temptuous way in which the nucleus of a party that now polls 46,000 votes in West Virginia were treated in 1860. The result

A dispartent from Michigan says that "nearly all the Congressional candidates are in the field." Now is the time to pass resolutions of sympathy for the field.—Chicago Tribane.

S. P. McCornick is the best posted politician in the Second district. He is also an indomitable worker and a thorough organizer, and he will be an eighty-ton gun in this canvass. He will lead the Mason column.

Gro. Wish and family, who have been resting by the sea at Westport Harbor, Mass., have returned. Mr. Wise reports a great lack of rain in New England this summer, and a great cartailment of crofs in consequence.

A old politician in the Second district writes us that neither Hoge nor Lucas will withdraw. Perhaps our correspondent does not understand or appreciate the persuasive power of Henry G. Davis as a candidate for re-election to the U. S. Senate.

The Washington, Pa., Reporter is disgusted with the conleres system, as well it may be. There are three counties and three candidates for Congress in that district, and each county appointed conferees.

The serious provides a supplemental by the following comments from the colored works and the colored voters and the colored voters and when the political party state the colored voters and when the political party state the colored voters and when the political party state the political party state the political party from which they have recived the substance and common sense teaches can be best attained inside of that party.

These remarks of Donglass are supplemented by the follow three candidates for Congress in that disthree candidates for Congress in the Chicago Tribune:

there is a dead lock on hand.

The Belmont county fair is to held this year on the 6th, 7th and 8th of September, at St. Clairsville. Jefferson county fair at Smithfield, September 26, 27th 28 and 20th. Harrison county at Cadiz, October 4th, 5th and 8th. Monroe county, at Woodsfield, September 27th, 28th and 20th, Columbiana county, at New Lisbon, September 26th, 27th and 28th.

The Parkersburg Scatinel seems inclined to draw theological lines in this canvass, and says Judge Loomis is not sound the clogically. This cones with a good grace from a professed follower of Thomas Jetterson, who as an instead, in his day, was only less notorious than Tom Patine, this generally supposed that a man holds his theological oningons in this country how much consideration they are read to the factoriant to the mest of the kepublican party that the negroes important to themselves than it is to the fill the sequence important to themselves than it is to the fill the sequence important to themselves than it is to the fill the sequence important to themselves than it is to the fill the sequence important to themselves than it is to the fill the sequence important to themselves than it is to the fill the sequence important to themselves than it is to the fill the sequence important to themselves than it is to the fill the sequence important to themselves than it is to the fill the sequence important to themselves the the Republican party that the reproduct on the theolor than the trainer they have been cheated to their vote, as the Democrata a large proportion of their vote, as the Democrata a large proportion of their vote, as the Democrata a large proportion of their vote, as the De It is generally supposed that a man holds It is generally supposed that a man holds his theological opinions in this country how much consideration they are, apt to receive at the hands of the Democrats before trom prejudice to his political standing.

THE very appearance of John W. Mason among the people of the Second district will make votes for him. Of large and portly stature, a large head, a benignant lonest face, a cental manner, a moch si carriage, a mountaincer in all his instincis and associations, thoroughly democratic in his manner of life, the masses cannot help taking nim to their hearts. This does not look as if Fultz wheat was running out. He will not sell his wheat at $1 per bushel, preferring to take the chances of a higher market. Mr. Smith does not boast that raising wheat is his specialty, his particular pride being a Norman horse that he
